

LOCAL NEWS

REMS students 'spring' in to action on Youth Service Day

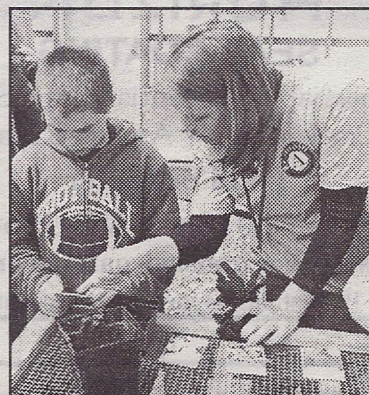

Courtesy photo

More than 200 Richardson Elementary Middle School students, parents, staff and Americorps members worked together on April 24 as they participated in Global Youth Service Day. Activities included creating a bottle cap mural, raking and weeding the school grounds, planting seeds in the school greenhouse and planting 300 trees on the property.

Courtesy photo

Richardson Elementary Middle School third grader Zoey London, on left and AmeriCorps volunteer Garrett Niose plant a tree at the Oscoda Area Schools campus. It was just one of 300 trees planted by students planted on Global Youth Service Day.

Courtesy photo

Richardson Elementary Middle School sixth grader Tyler McNamera plants seed pots in the school's greenhouse with help from an Americorps volunteer named Emily during Global Youth Service Day on April 24.